

The CD Rom contains the thesis .pdf file, Thoroughly Modern Theses, 36 .aif sound tracks and one PowerPoint file.

The thesis has been converted to single line spacing for more economical printing.

By clicking on the hypertext links in the .pdf file, your computer's default sound program should play them (better quality with headphones).

For conformity and discretion, all participants and organisations were given pseudonyms. Participants who wished to be identified are so indicated towards the end of the thesis.

Bronte.
