

UTS: LIBRARY

Papers of Jack Lindsay (1900 – 1990)

 Diaries: 828.03

Creator	Lindsay, Jack
Title	Papers of Jack Lindsay (1900-1990)
Date	25 th April 1924 – Jan 1925
Description	Diaries
Format	Handmade Cover made from a recipe box Pages photocopied from the original diary kept in Mitchell Library, Macquarie St, Sydney, NSW 2000.
Coverage	Contains little edits and comments in various pages from JL as he revisited his old diary in 1977.
Contents	April 1977 typed insert containing JL's reflections about his diary such as the beginning of his rift from Norman, comments about Beutler, John and Will Dalley. Includes poems
Source	Donated by Helen, daughter of Jack Lindsay

Creator	Lindsay, Jack
Title	Papers of Jack Lindsay (1900-1990)
Date	1954
Description	Diaries
Format	Handmade Three books attached into one Handwritten in pencil
Coverage	Work labelled "Holland 1954" by JL. Contains observations, notes, clippings collected during visit to Amsterdam.
Contents	Book 1 and 2: 8 th March 1954- Typed English translation of article, 'Jack Lindsay in Amsterdam' from newspaper clipping, Het Vrije Volk . 12 th March 1954- Typed English translation of article, 'A visitor from England' from Vrede . 19 th June- notes and observations, contains sketches of various people. A Report of Jack Lindsay and Florence James of the visit to Amsterdam for the Exhibition and Concert of the Dutch Arts Peace Committee Handmade booklet on notes from a PEN meeting Book 3: Calendar of events
Source	Donated by Helen, daughter of Jack Lindsay

Creator	Lindsay, Jack
Title	Papers of Jack Lindsay (1900-1990)
Date	1954
Description	Diaries
Format	Notebook Various pages written in pen and pencil
Coverage	Work labelled "Italy 1954" by JL. Contains newspaper clippings collected during visit to Italy.
Contents	Italian newspaper clippings Includes poems
Source	Donated by Helen, daughter of Jack Lindsay

Creator	Lindsay, Jack
Title	Papers of Jack Lindsay (1900-1990)
Date	1956
Description	Diaries
Format	Calendar from 'Foreign Languages Publishing House of the Rumanian Institute for Cultural Relations With Foreign Countries' Various pages written in pen and pencil
Coverage	Diary appears to have been written mainly in Halstead. JL worked on various novels, essays and Russian poems.
Contents	Back page; JL's reflections about wife Meta and desire to have a family, own health and USSR's activities
Source	Donated by Helen, daughter of Jack Lindsay

Creator	Lindsay, Jack
Title	Papers of Jack Lindsay (1900-1990)
Date	1960-1963, 1969
Description	Diaries
Format	Handwritten in pen and pencil Handmade calendar of events (January-March 1961) at the back of diary
Coverage	Observations about health, day to day activities and the raising of his children; reflections about his father; did various works including autobiography 'Fanfrolico and After'
Contents	Letter to JL from Stefan Leder, attached next to 27 th September 1960 entry. Newspaper clippings : 10 th December 1962- 'Liberty ban at Embassy : Stop Trial Call to America 1950' Letter to JL from Helen Bastable, Committee for Democratic Rights in the USA Typed inserts of additional entries in various pages Typed letters to Barbara and Isobel
Source	Donated by Helen, daughter of Jack Lindsay

Creator	Lindsay, Jack
Title	Papers of Jack Lindsay (1900-1990)
Date	n.d.
Description	Address book
Format	Address book
Coverage	Contains names and addresses of different people JL associated with
Contents	Includes a clipping of a list of Left-wing British Marxist publishers titled 'Left publishing Red Pages', sent to JL by Paul Grenville.
Source	Donated by Helen, daughter of Jack Lindsay