

A school peer mediation program as a context for exploring therapeutic jurisprudence: can a peer mediation program inform the law?

Volume II

Appendices and References

Nicole McWilliam

A thesis submitted in fulfilment of the requirement for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy

2012

Faculty of Law

University of Technology, Sydney

Table of Contents

Table of Contents	ii
List of Tables	iii
Appendix A Definitions	1
Appendix B Forms	2
Appendix C.1 Interviews and Observations	42
Appendix C.2 Interviews on DVD (attached)	190
Appendix C.3 Transcript of Interview with Dr Olav Nielssen	192
Appendix D Comments from Questionnaires	193
Appendix E.1 Generic Conflict Management Program 2	211
Appendix E.2 Psychiatric Considerations in Peer Mediation Training in a Prison Setting	216
Appendix F Crime and Punishment Conference	217
Appendix G National Awards for Quality Schooling	218
References	236

List of Tables

Table C.1 List of interviews and observations (NB DVD excerpts are edited)	47
Table C.2 List of excerpts of interviews on DVD (NB DVD excerpts are edited)	190
Table D.1 Comments from Questionnaire 1:Peer Mediation Student Survey	193
Table D.2 Comments from Questionnaire 3: Year 6 Student Survey	194
Table D.3 Comments from Questionnaire 3: Student Survey	195
Table D.4 Comments from Questionnaire 4: Staff Survey	201
Table D.5 Comments from Questionnaire 5:Former Student Survey	204
Table D.6 Comments from Questionnaire 6:Parent Survey	205